

Associate Pastor of Next Generations

Trulls Road Free Methodist Church- Courtice, Ontario

Job Summary:

Trulls Road Free Methodist Church (TRFMC) is building a dynamic team to lead our church family in growing deep in our faith and taking responsibility for the community around us. We are looking to add an energetic, creative and godly leader to our staff to give special attention to the younger generations. The successful candidate will love people, live out the gospel in their daily life and have a track record of inspiring leadership. Our priority is finding a person who is gifted in and called to pastoral ministry and is prepared for a long-term ministry commitment. Our desire is to hire someone who is open to their role adapting as the church continues to grow.

Education and Experience:

The ideal candidate should have a Bachelor's degree from an accredited Biblical/Theological Institute with two or more years of pastoral experience as a successful leader in the church. If the candidate is not currently a pastor in the Free Methodist Church in Canada, the candidate must be willing to go through the appropriate transition process.

The preferred candidate will have a gifting and aptitude in youth culture, with experience related to younger generation ministries. Communication and organizational skills, and familiarity in recruiting, leading, motivating and coordinating volunteers are necessary attributes for this position.
